LIMITED EDITION AMERICAN STANDARD TELECASTER®:

Now available in three limited edition vintage colors with painted headstocks! Today's new American Standard Telecaster carries on a 50 year legacy of superior guitar design. This ubiquitous and historic instrument permeates the soundscape of popular music. From orchestra pits to mosh pits, from small clubs to stadiums, from garages to recording studios, the Telecaster's unique tone can always be heard. We have upped the ante of this platform with a new bridge, a new neck and body finish, and a Fender-exclusive high-tech molded case. Of course we kept the hand-rolled Fretboard edges, alnico V pickups, and staggered tuning machines for tone and stability guaranteed to last a lifetime (with its limited lifetime warranty)! So make history with the new American Standard!
